

TEXAS SOCIETY FOR ADVANCEMENT OF HEALTH PROFESSIONS

Student Award Guidelines

The Texas Society for Advancement of Health Professions (TSAHP) awards up to three (3) student awards of $1,000 each at its annual fall conference. The student awards will be presented to health professions' discipline students who have demonstrated scholastic achievement and a commitment to service in their profession and community. The student awards will be offered to students of current TSAHP institutional members. There is no limit to the number of applicants an institution may submit for each category.

To be eligible for the student award, students must have successfully completed 24 hours or 50% of their professional program (whichever is greater) and must have at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA on a 4.0 system. Students must be enrolled on a full- or part-time basis in a health professions' discipline at a college or university that is an institutional member of the Texas Society for Advancement of Health Professions. Students must also be enrolled during the semester in which the student award application is submitted. The program representative will submit a discussion of the student's potential as part of the student award application. Applicants may submit up to two additional letters of recommendation. The application must be sent through the Dean, Chair, or Department Head of a program affiliated with a TSAHP institutional member. Student awards will be given in the following categories:

- Community College Student
- Undergraduate Student
- Graduate Student
- Unrestricted (student may fall in any category)

Selection Criteria:

- GPA (in major)
- Level and significance of the civic activities
- Level and significance of the school/professional activities including offices held, as well as presentations and publications
- Student's potential for future achievement
- Recommendation of Department Chair/Dean
- Enrolled during the semester in which the award application is submitted

SUBMIT completed applications by April 30, 2026 to: TSAHP Online Portal. Individuals must have a Google account to submit the application online.
